

The Northern Cancer Research Foundation
Bursary Awards
Named in honour of
Soeur Rachelle Watier

The Northern Cancer Research Foundation offers this bursary to a regional secondary student. The award is named in honour of Sr. Rachelle Watier to recognize her commitment and leadership to the Northern Cancer Research Foundation.

Based upon the demonstrated commitment of a regional secondary school student to raise awareness and/or funds for the Northern Cancer Research Foundation, this award will be given annually to a secondary school in northeastern Ontario.

Criteria: Open to any secondary school student in their final year, this award honours exceptional young people who have demonstrated volunteer commitment to their community and school, leadership potential, high academic standing who will be entering post-secondary (either university or college) in the Fall of the year in which the bursary is awarded. Applicants must be residents of northeastern Ontario.

Amount: The amount of this award will be $1,000 and will be given to a qualified secondary school. At the discretion of the selected secondary school and the Northern Cancer Research Foundation Executive Committee, this award may be divided between two qualified candidates.

Application: Secondary schools may apply for this award to the address listed below. The recipient student(s) will be chosen by the secondary school in conjunction with the Executive Committee of the Foundation.

Deadline: March 27, 2009
